Kathy is a third generation military Veteran who served nearly 30 years in the U.S. Air Force as a Public Affairs Officer or Nurse.

It is her life's calling to lead the Veteran Champion movement.

Through her business, Vanguard Veteran, she equips civilians to become Veteran Champions to improve quality of life, workforce and community, coaching employers to hire/retain Veteran talent and faith community leaders to create military ministries.

"Its not rocket science, it's people science."

In response to 9/11, she designed and executed a never-been-done-before statewide outreach program for the Ohio National Guard to educate and engage civilians in support of troops and their families.
